

O God, Who Made Us in Your Image

Robert Bayley

Johann B. König, 1738
O DASS ICH TAUSEND

1. O God, who made us in your im - age, as male and
2. The sex - ual im - a - ges a - round us, are filled with 3. O Lord, 'twas in your in - car - na - tion that sex - u - fe - male formed our frame, and in us placed a sex - ual bro - ken truths and lies. Por - no - gra - phy now steals your al - i - ty you bore; and climb - ing Cal - vary's cross re - like - ness, that we should glo - ri - fy your name. That im - age like - ness, and sex our cul - ture de - i - fies. De - sire for deemed it, in us your im - age to re - store. Now male and long has bro - ken to been, con - fu - sion you has turned lust, and bound - 'ries fe - male help to us be, your sex - ual reigns through A - dam's sin, as we de - fine i - den - ti - ty. moved we can - not trust, in this ter - rain we've lost our way.

like - ness healed and free, that we might glo - ri - fy your name.
